MUSIC CONCERT ANNOUNCEMENT

February 19, 2005 — 8:00 pm

The Folk Music Society of Huntington's Hard Luck Café will present two performers:

STEVE CHIZMADIA

Steve is a product of Long Island, born and raised in Brentwood. A singer-songwriter and sometimes actor for the better part of 20 years, he's spent most of his adult life in and around New York City, where he lives today and performs regularly at the C-Note and Mickey's Blue Room, and is a featured artist on the Best Songwriters of Greenwich Village. He's spent a healthy amount of time in the great state of Texas and considers it his home away from home — in 2003 he was a New Folk Finalist at Kerrville.

Steve will have his first CD, a combination of folk, country, cajun, zydeco, and light rock, ready for his first appearance on our Hard Luck Café stage. You'll find a little bit of everything — he's always picking up some piece of emotional bric-a-brac in his travels; for the most part he turns them into songs. Don't miss this show!

INISHOWEN

Once in a while a certain powerful, instinctive synergy combines with pure emotion and a high level of musical ability to produce something greater than the sum of its parts. Inishowen, the husband and wife team of Henry Cohen and Lynn Colgan Cohen, along with "Captain" Ron Peters and Eileen Bozarth, has achieved that rare balance of proficiency, versatility, and ease with their music, each other, and their audience.

Inishowen's repertoire is drawn primarily from the rich musical heritage of the Celtic nations, Canada and the United States, and spans the centuries from the Mediaeval period through to the present day. They specialize in authentic traditional folk music, both instrumental and vocal. They perform music from a variety of folk genres, including Irish, Scottish & English traditional, French Canadian, Old Time & Bluegrass, Mediaeval, Renaissance, Civil War, Colonial, & music from the nautical tradition.

Based the Susquehanna Valley of eastern York County, PA, this will be their debut appearance at our Hard Luck Café. We expect it to be a major event.
