MUSIC CONCERT ANNOUNCEMENT

January 6, 2007 — 7:30 pm

The Folk Music Society of Huntington's FIRST SATURDAY CONCERTS will present:

EMERGING ARTISTS SHOWCASE

LIZ CARLISLE - a little bit country, a little bit ivy

Liz describes country music as her native blues form, a music that cuts to the core of human experience and allows people to connect on a deeper level. "Everyone understands what it feels like to be in love, to miss your hometown, or to suffer a heart-break," Carlisle says. A public school graduate from Missoula, Montana, Liz graduated Summa cum Laude from Harvard this past June with a senior thesis in ethnomusicology, a study of the Falcon Ridge Folk Festival.

Her writing and stage presence has a powerful ability to erase the boundaries between country, pop, acoustic music, red state, blue state. She sings original songs that cull the heart of country music, the soul-searching of folk, and the lift of pop.

BEAUCOUP BLUE Hearts at Home

Father-son team David and Adrian Mowry comprise the Philadelphia-based roots revivalist band Beaucoup Blue that features a mix of blues/roots originals by both Mowrys as well as choice covers. Young Adrian plays six- and 12-string guitar, long-experienced blues master David handles six-string, slide and dobro guitar, and both men share vocal and song-writing duties.

Beaucoup Blue has a heavy blues influence, but also draws on country, folk, jazz and rock for their creative acoustic blues based folk music. Their voices work superbly together with something to say from the bottom of their hearts.
