MUSIC CONCERT ANNOUNCEMENT

April 21, 2007 — 7:30 pm

The Folk Music Society of Huntington's HARD LUCK CAFÉ will present two performers:

Long Island Performer JUDITH ZWEIMAN

Judith Zweiman has been an active part of the New York and Long Island music scene since the 1970's. She has performed and recorded with a legion of singer-songwriters such as Christine Lavin and Martha Trachtenberg. A former faculty member of The Guitar Workshop of Roslyn Heights, Judith later became a fixture in the Greenwich Village songwriter scene of the '80's. Judith has recorded numerous times for Fast Folk Musical Magazine. Her song, Heart on Ice was covered by Shawn Colvin and Lucy Kaplansky. Her solo CD release is entitled Look at the Moon. Her poetry and writing have been published in Creations Magazine, the Performance Poets Association Anthologies, and Arcanum.

Judith was a star afternoon performer on last Summer's Huntington Folk Festival, where she wowed the crowd.

Long Island Performer KEN "The Rocket" KORB

Anyone familiar with Long Island music venues has probably heard Ken Korb, a multi-instrumental performer of blues and folk music with a charming, humorous stage persona — he's the one who can make his harmonicas lie down and roll over and fly to the sky! He created a distinctively antique-flavored modern blues duo together with ragtime fingerstyle guitarist Bruce MacDonald that became the acoustic music representatives for the LI Blues Society at the International Blues Challenge in Memphis.

In his repertoire of instruments that we've seen him using lately is a penny-whistle, which he plays with charm. And to further exalt his versatility, he has become a master of a washboard decorated with a wealth of kooky musical sound makers!

This will be an exciting evening ...
