1ST SATURDAYS CONCERTS

MUSIC CONCERT ANNOUNCEMENT

Saturday, March 7, 2009 - 7:30 pm

The Folk Music Society of Huntington's FIRST SATURDAY CONCERTS will present:

THE FOLK BROTHERS

David Massengill & Jack Hardy Partners in Crime

When two of America's best songwriters get together the result could be electric, but it is not ... — it is acoustic.

Jack Hardy and David Massengill have known each other since they both moved to New York City in the mid-seventies, Jack from Colorado, David from Tennessee. The Boston Globe has said, "Jack Hardy is one of the most influential figures today in defining the American Folk Song." The same could be said of David Massengill. In this era of pop-driven acoustic music, these two have dual-handedly kept the folk tradition alive in songwriting.

Jack and David have shared many a stage together at clubs and festivals, been members of the weekly songwriters workshop since its inception, and worked on the Fast Folk Magazine together. They have traveled together, boulevardiered together, played softball together, had the occasional adult beverage together. And now they have formed a duo: The Folk Brothers... move over Simon and Garfunkel and Don and Phil.

David brings the experience of six albums, nine bootlegs and nine books to the mix. Jack brings the experience of fifteen albums and eight plays to the mix. Together, their new album Partners in Crime is well mixed.

They are more relevant and irreverent today than ever, especially since Jack insists they each write at least one new clever humorous song a week!

No one should miss the opportunity to see them perform live(ly) on our stage !!!
